

Vocational Rehabilitation Counsellor/Vocational Consultant

Family Based Care Tasmania (FBC) is an Association that provides community leadership and support. FBC is a well established, non faith based, not for profit organisation with 30 years experience in the delivery of support services to the aged, frail, people with disabilities and Carers living in Northern Tasmania.

Family Based Care is expanding its small, experienced team within its Vocational Services division – Tidswell Consulting.

The Vocational Consultant will be supported to develop their strengths in the role, to provide:

- Vocational Rehabilitation Services for external claims, and Return to Work Coordinator Services for Family Based Care Tasmania and external Community Sector clients.
- Quality Vocational Services for clients of Family Based Care who may be disadvantaged in the labour market by injury, disability, vocational preparation deficits, or worklessness.

Highly developed written and verbal communication skills are essential. The Vocational Consultant will have demonstrated ability to undertake the following key functions:

- Coordinate and facilitate the participation of relevant parties in the injury management process, in line with evidence-based Recover at Work Principles.
- Apply the principles of a strengths model, a biopsychosocial approach and a commitment to client empowerment in the delivery of Vocational Services.
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with treatment and service providers to promote The Value of Work philosophy, in goal setting and outcome measurement.

The successful applicant will be a graduate allied health professional (registered OT, Physio, accredited Exercise Physiologist, Registered Nurse, qualified Rehabilitation Counsellor), OR a qualified Career Development Practitioner (or be willing to complete a qualification), with sound experience in employment services or workplace rehabilitation.

The Vocational Consultant will work from our offices in Devonport, Launceston and Burnie, with flexible working arrangements to suit the successful applicant.

If this role sounds like you, please email your Resume and a cover letter, or phone for a confidential discussion today.

Kim Tidswell
Manager, Tidswell Consulting
70 Oldaker Street
Devonport 7310
Ph 0400 895 284
E kim@tidswellconsulting.com.au

employer
of choice